

AN extraordinary BEER STORY

One fine _____ morning, _____ and _____
(DAY) (PERSON AT TABLE) (PERSON AT TABLE)
decided to quit their jobs and open a brewery that specializes in _____ beer.
(ADJECTIVE)

The two combined their savings of _____ dollars
(NUMBER)
and opened up a(n) _____ brewery in
(ADJECTIVE)
_____, _____.
(SMALL TOWN) (STATE)

On the first day, they gathered their ingredients —
_____, _____, _____, and _____ —
(NOUN) (NOUN) (NOUN) (NOUN)
and got to work. " _____!" said _____.
(EXCLAMATION) (PERSON ONE)
"This _____ tasted like _____."
(BEER STYLE) (BEER STYLE)
They decided to call it _____ and (ADJECTIVE) (NOUN)
started selling it throughout the land.

The next week, _____ tweeted about the (CELEBRITY)
beer with a _____ emoji and the hashtag (EMOJI) (HASHTAG).
Soon, the beer was sold out everywhere, and people from as far away as (CITY) were trading _____ (NUMBER) (PLURAL NOUN)
for a single bottle.

Life was good for _____ and _____.
(PERSON ONE) (PERSON TWO)
Soon, they started spending more time _____
(VERB ENDING IN -ING)
than brewing.

"I sure do love beer," said _____. "Without it,
(PERSON TWO)
we'd still be _____!"
(VERB ENDING IN -ING)

TROEGSWAY

"We're not an English ale brewery or a German lager brewery. We take bits and pieces of each of those traditions, put OUR own twist on them, and try to come up with what we think are very creative and great-tasting beers."

CHRIS TROGNER